Head of School

We have had a fantastic start to the new half term.

Our new Restorative Behaviour approach is having a massive impact on low level behaviour and everybody is much happier in school.

I would be really grateful if you could talk to your children about what is happening in school to help them articulate how they are feeling.

Thank you.

It is that time of year again when noses start running (not just the teachers!). We would be really grateful for any donations of boxes of tissues.

Please drop them into the school office, thank you.

Pudsey Friday 17th November 2023

The School Council have decided that they would like to do a cake sale after school on Thursday 16th November, any donations of cupcakes will be welcomed from Wednesday 15th November.

They have also decided to come to school wearing bright colours on Friday 17th November (there is no need to buy any special clothing).

Please remember to bring your pennies to cover our giant Pudsey.

Craft Club on Wednesday's

We had a really enjoyable week making rockets and fireworks in craft club.

This club is open to everyone and will run until Christmas.

Anti-Bullying Week Monday 13th-17th November 2023

Next week is Anti-Bullying week and the children may come to school on Monday wearing odd socks (over their tights if they wish).

We will be doing a variety of classroom based activities to mark Anti-Bullying week, please ask your children about it.

Cool Milk's Christmas Card Design Competition

Cool Milk are inviting all young artists to create a festive milk-themed design that will be printed on their official Christmas Card and sent to hundreds all over the UK.

To enter, all they need to do is fold an A4 sized paper in half to create a card. Then, children can create their designs on the front of the card.*

If you child would like to take part, please can they bring in their design from home by Friday 1st December 2023.

The winning school will receive a £100 Amazon gift card for school supplies, and the child who designed the card will also receive a £100 Amazon gift card.

Tempest School Photos

The photographer will be in on Monday 20th November to take individual photos and family photos.

The photographer will be in from 8:30am if you want to have a photograph with siblings who are not pupils of the school.

Please make sure the children have a cardigan, jumper or hoodie with them for the photograph.
